BOARDING OF LIVESTOCK TERMS AND CONDITIONS

When boarding an animal with Lincoln Reptile & Pet Centre, you must agree to the terms and conditions by reading and signing the following-

We cannot take any liability for death or illness of any livestock that is in our care, If the animal dies or becomes ill whilst in our care we will take appropriate measures required i.e freezing of the deceased or taking the ill animal to the vets. Any vet bills must be paid on collection of the animal, we are required to give your name and address to the vet. You will receive an itemised bill from the vet. Fuel costs will be charged if vets is outside of Lincoln.

We cannot take liability for your animal catching any diseases, fleas, ticks or mites whilst in our care, if we discover any of the above whilst in our care we will treat them appropriately, you will incur a charge for this which has to be paid on collection.

We hold the right to refuse boarding of any animal that is bought into us, we cannot take animals in that appear to be ill or have evidence of disease, fleas, ticks or mites on them.

We do not require you to bring housing or bedding for most animals, but if you wish to provide items with them, please make a note below of these items, we supply food for most animals in our care which is included in the price, if the animal requires a specific food please provide us with this. Please inform us of any special dietary requirements or allergies.

If animals are not collected within 7 days of your chosen collection date and we have not been informed we will presume you have abandoned the animal, appropriate measures will be taken, the RSPCA will be informed and your contact details will be given over to them.

All boarding and vet fees must be paid on or before the collection of your animal.

When boarding an animal we require your full name and address for our records.

PLEASE SIGN BELOW TO CONFIRM THAT YOU AGREE TO OUR TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BOARDING
